MAY REARRANGEMENT

After the house-cleaning season each spring comes the May rearrangement of the home. To the tasteful housewife a rearrangement of the furnishings and additions here and there throughout the different rooms alters their whole appearance and makes them almost as good as new. To help you this May in your endeavors we are offering Reliable Furniture at Money-Saving Prices!

Figures show that we never did before such a volume of business in one week as the one just past. There is a reason. What is it? It is this: We have got the goods you want. The prices you are after. Nine times out of ten these reasons settle it with the customer.

Below is a partial list of articles we are making sweeping reductions on: Princess and Common Dressers at $10.00, $12.00, $13.00 and $16.00. Buffets at $19.00, $22.00 and $24.00. Polished Quartered Oak Chamber Suits cut from $65.00 to $55.00. China Closets cut from $33.00 to $28.00, from $25.00 to $22.00 and from $21.00 to $18.00, and many others. These reductions are given to make more room on our show floors. Call and see them.

Soap orders are coming in daily. See what your neighbor got.

A Massachusetts city, Pittsfield, wishes to enter the Northern base-ball league with "Cy" Perry, formerly of the Rutland team, as manager. It is probable, however, that because of the lateness of the application the Northern league would refuse to admit Perry's team, if for no other reason. Perry declares that he has $1,000 to invest in these ball and wants Pittsfield to make up a similar amount.

The Daylight Store

Have You Seen Our Souvenir Letter?

This letter has in it eight pictures, as follows: Spaulding Graded School, View of Barre City, Goddard Seminary, City Square, Mathewson School, Quarry Scene, Fire Station and A. P. Abbott & Co.'s Daylight Store—all for 5c, which is half price of similar work in other cities. We are paying half for the advertising. Ask to see other new ideas, as follows.

NEW BELTS

We have just received a new idea in a Silk Belt. Has drummet holes in one end. The other end closes through these drums with a clasp, giving the Belt a neat appearance and a new idea.

These new ideas are best appreciated by those that have them first.

The Suspender Belt that came in previous to this is a good seller and has a trim appearance when on.

Ask to see new Collars with Persian ribbons bowed in with the lace. They are the smart kinds. Nothing later.

Received this morning, a lot of Resada Green and Grey Petticoats, the first that we have had for over eight weeks. Price, $2.35.
